Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to issue an appropriate Writ, order or direction, declaring the action of the respondents in not announcing the results of the petitioner for the Teachers' Training Certificate Examination conducted in two batches i.e., in January and October, 1997, as arbitrary, illegal, unjust, discriminatory and violative of Fundamental Rights guaranteed to the petitioner under Articles 14, 16 and 21 of the Constitution of India besides being violative of Article 41 of the Constitution of India and issue the consequential direction to the respondents to publish the results of the petitioner for Teachers' Training Certificate Examination conducted in two batches, i.e., in January and October, 1997.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR. RUPENDRA MAHENDERA

Counsel for Respondents: GOVERNMENT PLEADER FOR SCHOOL EDUCATION

The Court made the following ORDER:

The petitioner appeared for Teachers' Training Certificate Examination (T.T.C.) conducted in January and October, 1997. But, the results were not declared. In the meanwhile, the Government announced recruitment of teachers by District Selection Committee and after written examination, interviews were being held on 19-4-1998. As per the rules, the candidates for D.S.C have to produce necessary marks memo and pass certificate on the date of interview. Therefore, she filed the present Writ Petition.

This Court, while admitting the Writ Petition on 15-5-1998, passed interim orders in W.P.M.P.Nos.16727, 16724 and 16725 of 1998 as under:

"…, there shall be an interim direction to the respondents to allow such of the petitioners who have been passed Teacher Training Certificate Examination held in January and October 1997 for interview, provided they have passed the examination held by the District Selection Committee on 19.4.1998 along with other eligible candidates without insisting on production of mark-sheets of Crash Special Teacher Training Certificate. The result of the selection of the petitioners shall not be announced until further orders."

In view of the interim orders, nothing survives in the Writ Petition and therefore, the Writ Petition is dismissed as infructuous. No costs.
